Our big investment

What our Chartered status means for you

What do you look for in your firm of financial advisers? That it is ethical and puts your interests first? That its people are competent, knowledgeable and committed to maintaining their professional capability?

Those are precisely the qualities embodied by Chartered status – the reason we are proud to have achieved the title Chartered Financial Planners.

Chartered status is an objective mark of professional standing among all professions. It is awarded to firms who can demonstrate commitment to developing knowledge, enhancing capability and maintaining ethical standards.

The title Chartered Financial Planners is granted by the Chartered Insurance Institute (CII), the professional body for insurance and financial services.

Chartered firms must meet serious obligations

To retain our title we must ensure the advice, service and ongoing support we provide to you are of the highest quality.

Our advice must be based solely on your researched needs, and provided by someone competent to discuss products and services that meet your requirements.

- We ensure our technical and professional knowledge and competence through professional qualifications.
- We keep our knowledge and skills up-to-date through continuing professional development.
- And our staff must be members of the Personal Finance Society (the financial planning arm of the CII Group) and comply with its Code of Ethics, which is enforced through disciplinary sanctions.

Our Chartered title means a lot to us. It was not easily achieved, and it takes continuous investment in customer service and commitment to professionalism to maintain.
